Maine Forest, Pulp, Paper and Allied Industry Symposium

Featured Speakers & Presentors

Scott Jungles

President
SCA North America

Scott Jungles graduated from Roanoke College in Salem, Virginia with a bachelors degree in business administration. After graduating he started his career with Scott Paper Company's Away from Home Division as a Sales Representative, and then Senior Representative. In 1986 received an MBA in International Business from the University of Bridgeport in Bridgeport, CT., while working for Scott Health Care as a Regional Sales Manager. In 1995 when SCA acquired Scott Health Care, Mr. Jungles was named Director of Marketing. In 1996 he became Global Product Manager and then International Business Manager for SCA Hygiene Products working in Gothenburg, Sweden. He returned to the States as Vice President of U.S. Sales in 1999 and was named President North America of SCA in 2001.

Mike Michaud

U. S. Representative
Second Congressional District of Maine

Born in 1955, Mike is the second of six children. He was raised in Medway, where he attended Schenck High School in East Millinocket. After graduation, Mike gained employment at the Great Northern Paper Company where he was employed for more than thirty years.

Mike first ran and was elected to the Maine House of Representatives in 1980, where he went on to serve seven consecutive terms. In 1994, he was successful in his first bid for the Maine State Senate. In December 2000, Mike was unanimously elected Maine State Senate President. In the U.S. House of Representatives, Mike serves on the Veterans' Affairs Committee and is the Ranking Member on the committee's Benefits Subcommittee.

Mike is a graduate of the John F. Kennedy School of Government Program for Senior Executives in State and Local Government at Harvard University.

Paul F. Jannke

Vice President, Wood Products and Timber
RISI

Paul Jannke specializes in the analysis and forecasting of the wood products industry. His area of expertise is the econometric modeling and forecasting of the North American lumber and panel markets. Specifically, Paul is responsible for RISI's lumber and structural panel demand, supply, and price forecasts. In addition, Paul is responsible for the ongoing maintenance and development of the RISI Wood Products Model.

Paul authors the quarterly North American Lumber Forecast and the monthly lumber commentary which regularly update RISI's analysis and forecast for North American lumber markets. Paul has also co-authored many studies on the international lumber, timber, and panel industries.

Before coming to RISI, Paul was a research economist at the Royal Swedish Academy of Science in Stockholm, Sweden, specializing in economic modeling. Paul holds a Master's degree in economics from Boston University and a Bachelor's degree in economics from the University of Connecticut.

Jennifer Miller

Executive Vice President
Publishing & Corporate Communications
SAPPI Fine Paper North America

Jennifer Miller is charged with the growth and management of the publishing businesses, as well as corporate brand strategy and market research. She joined SAPPI in 1996 as General Counsel. She previously served as General Counsel at Boston Gas. She is a graduate of the Cornell Law School.

Matt Bumgarden

USDA, Forest Service

Since 1999, Matt has worked for the Eastern Forest Use in a Global Economy unit at the USDA Forest Service laboratory in Princeton, WV. Prior to joining the Forest Service, he spent a year with Champion International Corporation in eastern Texas as a systems analyst. He holds a Ph.D. in forest products marketing from Virginia Tech. and BS/MS degrees in forest management from Ohio State. Matt has taught in dendrology and forest products classes and has published several research articles dealing with primary and secondary industries and markets. He is a member of the Forest Products Society and the Society of Wood Science and Technology.

Ralph Feck

Vice President Operations
Georgia-Pacific Corporation

Ralph has spent his entire career in the pulp and paper industry, beginning in 1979 when he joined Georgia-Pacific's Woodland Operations as assistant superintendent, water and effluent, in the steam and power department. In 1991 he was named special assistant to the vice president of manufacturing for recovery operations and transferred to Georgia-Pacific's corporate headquarters in Atlanta, GA. Returning to Maine in December 1993 as production manager, Ralph was named general manager of Woodland's pulp and paper mill in 1994.

In 2004 Ralph was named Vice President of Operations for the Savannah River Mill in Rincon, GA.
